

GB Distributed Power Generation Landscape

The total number of flexible generation sites now connected to the GB Gas Distribution Network is 270 which equates to 4.2 GW of power output. With another 83 sites due to connect soon, this will take the total power output to nearly 6 GW once they all connect.

The graphic illustrates the location of connected and accepted generation sites across the four GDNs by size of MW output.

